PCMH Announcement:

The Neighborhood Health Centers of the Lehigh Valley Vida Nueva at Casa Guadalupe in Allentown has been awarded PCMH Level III recognition by the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) Patient-Centered Medical Home Program.

NCQA is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to improving health care quality. NCQA accredits and certifies a wide range of health care organizations. It also recognizes clinicians and practices in key areas of performance. NCQA is committed to providing quality health care information for consumers, purchasers, health care providers and researchers.

“NCQA Patient-Centered Medical Home Recognition raises the bar in defining high-quality care by emphasizing access, health information technology and coordinated care focused on patients,” said NCQA President Margaret E. O’Kane. “Recognition shows that the Neighborhood Health Centers of the Lehigh Valley Vida Nueva at Casa Guadalupe has the tools, systems and resources to provide its patients with the right care at the right time.”
